Who are we?

Sexually abused from age 5 by three different men caused her unbearable pain. Pamela Hillman's story is similar to so many women; she learned to use drugs to numb the pain and keep the nightmares away. Due to an increased dependence on drugs, Pamela progressed into deeper dysfunction and despair which ultimately led her, as is the case with so many others, to prison for 18 months.

It was at this time her eyes were opened to the similarity of her story compared to others she met while in prison. Because one in three women are sexually assaulted in their lifetime, through her horrific experiences she ultimately discovered her calling and life purpose - to help others like herself receive true healing through Jesus Christ, and create better opportunities for citizens returning to life post-prison and incarceration.

Founding President and CEO, Pamela Hillman, launched LifeChangers Legacy in 2012 to create better second chance opportunities for citizens returning to life, post-prison and incarceration.

LifeChangers Legacy seeks to help communities thrive as a result of Biblically-transformed, post-prison individuals and their families actively living their lives WITH purpose, and ON purpose, in order to accomplish God's purposes.

As LifeChangers Legacy Equips volunteer Mentors to offer high-impact, Christ-centered support to women and men serving time in prisons and jails, the cycle of addiction is broken, and those individuals are restored and even transformed as they transition from incarceration into society, thereby reducing recidivism (repeating of or returning to criminal behavior by the same offender) and averting homelessness.

We have a proven track record with less than 2% returning to prison compared to the national average of over 68%.

December 2022 represents a milestone at LifeChangers Legacy --10 Years of ministry to donors and profound impact in the lives of thousands of returning citizens! The LifeChangers Legacy 10-Year Celebration is an opportunity to commemorate this milestone and our faithful donor community. The event will be intentionally designed to step away from the busy-ness of life and connect with fellow givers in celebration of all that has been accomplished and discover the wonderful opportunities ahead of us!

Thousands of lives will be changed through your generosity. We are so excited for the opportunity to partner with leaders like you to touch those lives.
